

YOGA CLASSES

Repeated due to large demand. The first class sold out almost immediately, leaving a waiting list!

April 20, 27, May 4 & 11 6:30 p.m. Linkside Café

$50.00 for 4 classes.

This 4-week program is customized for the BSGAC from actual classes currently offered. The Yoga Sanctuary promotes Yoga for everyone, regardless of age or fitness level. A gentle yoga program will increase strength and flexibility while rejuvenating both the body and mind.

You are requested to bring your own mat, if you have one. The instructor will have a few mats available to borrow for the class.

Lecture — Don Blair—Author, Lecturer, Narrator, Radio/TV Spokesman

“The Road to the Moon”

$10.00 per person June 17th 6:30-8:30 p.m. Linkside Cafe

Don Blair was a Network Radio Correspondent for All Networks in New York City from 1965-1989 and covered the ocean splashdown of several of our early space launches. His lecture will cover all the effort in getting to the Moon. A future lecture will include his upcoming (July) 40th anniversary celebration aboard the USS Hornet for the Apollo 11. His talk should be fascinating and filled with numerous magnificent color and black and white photos supported with his narrative of the depicted occasions in our space history.

Don will have his book available for purchase and signing.

Dwayne Alton is a director of Instructional Technology for a large county school district in Southwest Florida. Having taught computer user groups for over eight years, he will bring a hands-on approach to teaching in a very light, informal atmosphere that appeals to novices and intermediate users. Students will also receive a CD/DVD of the class to take home and use to reinforce the skills presented.

Each seminar is $20.00 which includes the class CD to take home.

COMPUTING SERIES

April 29: GREAT INTERNET FREEBIES: The internet is full of free software and services. But a lot of it comes with spyware, spam, or worse. At this seminar, we'll feature a lot of great freebies and all of them are safe to use.

DIGITAL PHOTOGRAPHY SERIES

April 8: SHARING YOUR PHOTOS: Digital photos are meant for sharing. This seminar will discuss how to avoid common problems sending photos over e-mail. You will also learn how to share photos on the internet, print them in standard album or frame-sized and create slideshows you can share on the internet or watch on T.V.

April 22: PHOTO EDITING: Learn to fix common photo problems, touch up and restore old photos, combine elements of multiple photos, (ex. Put a person from one picture into another picture), and perform creative colorization.

Charlotte Stone Crabs Baseball Game

Container Herb Gardening

$10.00 per person Friday, June 12 6-8:00 p.m.

Master Gardener for the Charlotte County Extension Service, Dolly Tomalinas will bring all materials needed to establish a window-box herb garden. She will provide herbs that are the most tolerant of our harsh summers as well as afford the portability of the window box in the event of severe weather and the necessity for it to be moved. She will also be showing a PowerPoint presentation. The container growing of herbs can be utilized whether on a lanai, patio or balcony and enhance our homes and meals with fragrance and flavor.

Class attendees will be able to purchase chances for a drawing to go home with the created window box herb garden.

Registration for all events is conducted in the Administration Office which is open Monday through Friday from 9:00-5:00. Bring your BSGAC Membership card and payment at the time of registration.
