

I. MEMBERSHIP PRIVILEGES

Each Membership unit shall be issued two membership cards if two names are supplied on the membership application form. No more than two cards will be issued to a unit. Membership cards should be carried in the event staff requests verification for facility use; discounts; and registration for events, activities and classes. A replacement fee of $25 will be charged to replace a lost card.

A. Household and House Guests

- Members may elect to extend Activity membership privileges to other persons of their household who reside in their unit and to their own house guests. Members are responsible for the conduct of their family and guests using the facilities.
- Golf Member privileges may not be extended to another person. Household or house guests would be eligible for the Activity membership discount on golf, cart rental and range balls.
- If there are more than two in a household regularly using the facilities, the users' names should be submitted to the office and will be recorded to the member's account information. These persons should use one of the two account membership cards when using the facilities.
- A member's guest should be accompanied by the member whenever possible. If a guest is using the member's card without the member present, the member should notify the office or Pro Shop to prevent unauthorized use of a card.
- If the member's guest shall be using the facilities without the member present over a period of time, the member may acquire a temporary Guest Pass from the office for the duration of the guest's stay. Guest Passes will include the guest's name and period of stay. Guests must carry and present the cards whenever using the facilities.
- Members' guests shall have Club house privileges, use of facilities, services, applicable discounts and eligibility for events or activities in accordance with Club policies.

B. Tenants of a Unit with Membership

- Members' registered tenants shall have Club house privileges, use of facilities, services, applicable discounts and eligibility for events or activities in accordance with the Club policies and the membership options of the Owner. Members are responsible for the conduct of their tenants using the club facilities
- A rental unit shall be defined as a unit that is not the primary residence of the owner and not eligible for Florida Homestead Exemption.
- A membership account may only be used by the Owner or Tenant at one time. If the rental unit is the sole membership unit for the member, the owner shall have no membership privileges during the contracted rental period in which the membership is assigned to the registered tenants.
- Members must contact the office to register their tenants for use of the BSGAC membership privileges. Their accounts will be so noted in the data base. The office will issue temporary renter's cards with the tenant's names, type of membership privileges and the period of stay.
- Tenants must carry and present the temporary renter's cards whenever using the facilities.
- Activity Membership: Activity membership privileges are extended to all those staying in the unit.
- Golf Membership: A Seasonal or Annual Golf Membership for a Single or Couple may be purchased for a rental unit to be assigned to a specific named individual or couple for the entire period of a rental contract. Others staying in the unit would only have Activity Membership privileges. Tenants must check in at the Pro Shop desk and may not use the "Self Check In" station.
- A member may fill out a form to have their unit listed on the web page as available units which extend BSGAC membership privileges during the tenant's stay. This shall be a resource to visitors seeking to experience BSGAC membership.

II. CLUB EVENTS GUEST POLICY

These Guest Policies apply to those guests who are not part of the household and are not house guests. Please see Section I. Membership Privileges for household and house guest privileges.

A. General Policy

- Event guest privileges may be limited by the Club, from time to time, in the sole and absolute discretion of the Club and its management.
- The Club may post some events to exclude all outside guests or establish a special date at which guests may be accommodated if an event is not sold out. Such exclusions or requirements will be posted with the individual event information.
- An event guest who is not a house guest shall not have any membership privileges nor be eligible for any Club discounts except for bar service during the event

B. Guest of Single Members: A single member may bring a guest to Club Events regardless of the home address of the guest unless otherwise posted for the event. A single guest must accompany and sit with the member at all dinners and events.

C. Family Members as Guests: Members may bring immediate family members (parents, children, grandparents, grandchildren) regardless of home address unless otherwise posted for the event.

D. Non-Family as Guests: Non family guests must reside outside the BSGAC Marina and surrounding communities and may be permitted for some events as posted for the event.

III. PUBLIC ACCESS PRIVILEGES

Burnt Store Golf & Activity Club provides recreation and socialization for its members. The public is invited to experience the benefits and enjoyment of the Club and its facilities through limited public guest access in accordance with Club policy.
